A SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY.

From the Southern Presbyterian. No doubt many of the readers of the So doubt many of the readers of the Southern Presbyterian have often heard of the Ferguson-Williams College for colored girls at Abbeville, S. C. For many years Rev. E. W. Williams and his wife labored in Abbeville under the direction of the Freedmen's Board of the Northern Presbyterian Church. They enjoyed the confidence of the Board and were used as examples of what a colored man and his wife could do for their people in the South. God blessed their work and they built up a church of 150 members and a large school, known then as Ferguson Academy. About two years ago Mr. Williams wrote an article in his paper calling attention to rumors affecting the good standing of one of the Board's schools for girls. A severe controversy sprang up over the matter. The result of it all was that Williams bought prop-erty and built another school. For a year he and his wife have alone been conducting a successful school in their new and excellent building. Last win-ter application was made to our Executive Committee of Colored Evangeli-zation to purchase this property and take charge of the school. But there were matters involved that made it seem best to refer the matter to the Edited by a distinguished lady General Assembly at Dalas. The Assembly referred the matter back to our committee with power to act. committee after most careful consideration has adopted the following: "Resolved that the committee approves of the purchase of the Williams school property upon favorable terms, pro-vided the Church in South Carolina or elsewhere will undertake the payment of the debt and the expense of carrying on the school without infringing on the income of the committee for its regu-lar work. Resolved, that the secretary, Rev. J. Lowrie Wilson, D. D., and Rev. J. S. Watkins, D. D., appoint a committee to canvass the Church and ascertain its mind." With the substantial approval of the Assembly and with express approval of the Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization, this most important matter is referred to God's people for their help.

AN INTERESTING OCCASION. I was invited recently to go to Abbeville to make the commencement address at the closing of the session of the Ferguson-Williams College. I was present at the exercises with other white friends of the enterprise day and night for four days. I heard recitations, songs, instrumental music, erations, essays. I saw gymnastic exercises of various sorts, and most gladly testify to the high character of the performances. I did not see a single girl hesitate about anything. Everything showed patient and careful training. I showed patient and careful training. I served properly. We have lots of fundamental that through the medium of your excellent weekly the Washingtonian and others who read the BEE might know, to a large extent, where to go and be served properly. We have lots of fundamental that through the medium of your excellent weekly the Washingtonian and others who read the BEE might know, to a large extent, where to go and be served properly. enjoyed the unique distinction of mak-ing a commencement address to a very large audience at eleven o'clock at night, and they didn't go to sleep either! The impression made on my mind was that in this school real, sub-stantial good was being done by colored people for colored people under the sympathetic eye of their own white neighbors. It seemed a well nigh ideal arrangement.

A BIT OF HISTORY. Rev. E. W. Williams is a native of Maryland, and was carried, I believe, zens, able and willing to labor skilfully with their brains or their hands for an honorable living. They are particularly careful for the spiritual interests of the girls. I preached in the school for five days last spring and witnessed a dozen very intelligent confessions of faith amongst the girls of the college. I have carefully examined this school in and out. My deliberate conviction is that its plans and methods are helpful and sound to an unusually high degree. If we were to start from the bottom we could not produce such teachers and managers and so suitable a building in twelve or fifteen years.

WHAT ABBEVILLE SAYS.

WHAT ABBEVILLE DID.

The session gave me permission to make a statement from the pulpit and take a subscription for this work. Without extra effort and with a simple state-Mr. Henry H. Dade, one of the oldest citizens of West Washington, and a 33d degree mason, was a man highly respected by the people of this city. Rev. R. H. Robinson, in his funeral sermon over the body of Mr. Dade, did not say too much of him. Mr. Dade leaves two sons, who are very industrious young men, and who will now have the sole care and use of their ather's property.

WHAT NOW?

Our committee will appoint one of the best men we can find to take charge of a canvass of the churches of South Carolina as far as the way may be opened to raise the sum of $2,000, the amount actually needed now for the pressing needs of this enterprise. It will all be spent in South Carolina, and every cent will go toward the actual purchase of the property unencumbered. Much more than this will be needed ultimately; but this sum will give us title.

It is time for action! We have talked enough. Show the colored people that in proposing for them an Independent African Church we do not propose to shove them off to linger and languish without proposed to the colored people that in proposed to show them off to linger and languish without proposed to the colored people to the colored people that in proposed to the colored people that in proposed the colored people that the colored people that in proposed the colored people that the colored people that in proposed the colored people that the colored peopl without appliances with which to do their work. A NEW LEADERSHIP.

Ten lines constitute an inch.

It is all well enough for our esteemed contemporary, the Daily of this country are not in need of teachers. a new leadership. Indeed, it is one of the most important issues that the negroes in the South will make, did not seek the positions. I refer to The masses of the people will be trustees. Indeed, so thoroughly was I convinced that this new leadership will be found in the press. The press of the country will be more able to instruct the masses than those men who place themselves far above the welfare of the people.

The people have been fooled long enough, and now they propose to think and act for themselves from the teachings they receive from the

With but a few exceptions, negro leadership has been a failure.

Men who would look after the interest of the people, and who have subordinated it to their own personal interest, have from time to time been given the black eye.

There has been a great deal said against Bruce and Lynch, and yet there are no two men in this country who have done more to advance the interest of their people than these two men. They lay no claim to leadership, but they are entitled to fair consideration and the unanimous indorsement of the colored people.

We should not dislike men because others do, and we should not cry out "crucify our benefactors" because others may dislike them.

The next administration will be republican, and it is in the power of negro republicans throughout this country to obtain such recognition that is commensurate with their voting strength. We can only ob- the final vote granting them the right tain that recognition through a new to vote was taken.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

GOOD ADVICE

To the Editor of the BEE:

SIR: The most interesting question for the people of the District to consider is the proper management of the public schools

Some years ago it was my good fortune to become superintendent of the white and colored schools both for the county and cities for two of the wealthiest counties in the State, having in my employ two hundred teachers. The years spent in this position gave a splen-did opportunity not only of studying the school system of that and other sections, but a study as well of the neces-Post, to say that the colored people sary qualifications of both officers and

It was my candid opinion then, and is now, that the school officers who were the most efficient were those who imbued with this idea that whenever it became my duty, as it some times did, to appoint a trustee I invariably declined to nam any one seeking the po-

Thirty-nine years ago I attended the first school taught in the territory of Kansas, since which time I have, with much interest, watched the development of the school system in that State. Until 1887, the positions more sought, perhaps, than any others was to become a member of the school board. Often times saloon-keepers, gamblers, men of well-known immoral characters were elected. In many sections of the State more or less scandals came to light in the schools, and many teachers were a disgrace to the profession; but how could this have been otherwise? Just what the officers were so was some of the teachers; what the teachers were so was many of the pupils. These things go hand and hand. It is just as impossible for an impure teacher to give out good to the children under her charge-the future men and womenas it is for pure limpid water to come from a polluted fountain. If her life is

Since that time the women there have given much time to the proper management of the schools, until it is difficult to find a man in any community who is willing to become a candidate for the position of member of the school board, so thoroughly do the women investigate his character. Now the office, as ings for the purpose of moulding it should, seeks the man, and the man not now the office. I venture the assertion that there does not exist in any State, possibly with the exception of Wyoming and South Dakota, a better management of the schools-free from scandals and immoral characters in This is due to the watchful eye of the good women in that State. I spent some years in Wyoming and South Dakota, where I studied and management, where the women have absolute and complete control, more largely so in Wyoming, and a higher state of morals does not obtain anywhere. An immoral character has never been known in any of the schools. With women at the helm in Wyoming she is the best governed State without doubt in the Union. The very pressure of good women in affairs makes immoral men quake and seek other quarters. The immoral teacher knows that I they have no show under her severe and

Let the BEE assist in this. Will it?

EX-SENATOR BRUCE IN MICHI-GAN.

Special to the BEE.

Battle Creek, Mich., Aug. 1, 1895. It has been a long time since so many people have gathered together in this part of the State as came to-day from all sections of the State for the purpose of celebrating the emancipation of the slaves in the West Indies and the United

The trains have been crowded, bring-ing many thousand persons of both races, many on horseback, wagons, and buggies until the streets present one mass of people. Senator Bruce was the orator of the day, and spoke for more than two hours and was applauded most heartily. Never did he appear to better advantage and never an audience so eager to catch the words of wisdom as they came from the man whom the people in Michigan have so often gathered together to hear.

Most eloquently he told of the many vicissitudes through which we had come to attain to our present height. He counseled harmony and unity amongst ourselves; to do away with petty jealousies and go forward as one man and capture all that there was in store for those who would win above their fellows; said, in order to be a strong people morally as well as intellectually, we must educate not alone the head, but the heart and hand; that no people lived long who did not do

He did not discuss politics, but did urge his hearers to always go to the polls and vote for the men and measures that would bring to them the greatest good, and never so far forget the duty they owed themselves and their race, or to permit the colored vote to become a dead vote.

The speech was considered by all as a master-piece, delivered without notes, and made a profound impression upon he audience

Governor John T. Rich followed the orator of the day To-night Mr. Bruce again speaks at the Opera House, where an immense audience will be present. To-day will long be remembered by INDIANS STILL QUIET IN IDAHO.

They Have Not Molested the Settlers-Troops to Arrive To-Morrow. Market Lane, Idaho, July 30.—A courier has arrived here from Goody's Lake, Idaho, and says that there is no fighting going on in Jackson's Hole, and very little danger of any taking place. The troops will not be pushed by hard marches and it will be Wednesday or Thursday before their destination is reached. No authentic reports of a war-like character have been received by like character have been received by General Coppinger from the Jackson's Hole country. On the contrary, reliable information has been received that not a single white person has been molested by the Indians. The uncertain by the Indians.

The uncertainty that exists as to the number of the Indians in the Jackson's Hole country renders it impossible to say whether the troops will be called upon to fight the Indians or protect them. Agent Teter and his Indian police insist that there are not more than half a dozen Fort Hall Indians in the Jackson's Hele country.

son's Hole country.
Salt Lake City, July 30.—A special from Market Lane says that the five companies of infantry that arrived there companies of infantry that arrived there sunday night have received orders to go at once and will leave this morning for Jackson's Hole. It will take ten days to make the trip. Every effort will be made to induce the Indians to return to their reservations peaceably. The troops have received word that the settlers are going to attack the Indians. A band of 200 or 300 Indians were on the trail of the troops when they struck camp.

INDIAN UPRISING IN KANSAS.

Fifty Braves Scare a Sheriff, His Posse as Police Off Their Reservation.

Topeka, July 30 .- Sheriff Naylor, Jackson county arrived in Topeka last night and will ask for State troops to put down an uprising of Indians on the Pottawamie reservation. The Sheriff and posse accompanied the Indian police vesterday to make an arrest and all had to fly for their lives. The Sheriff says there are fifty armed redskins awaiting to resist any attempt to arrest any of their number. The trouble arose over a section of the reservation taken for a party of white men, claimed to have been leased from the Indian agent. Last Saturday the white men began making hay on their lands and an Indian, Marrawh, and several others drove them off. Warrants were put in the hands of he Indian police to be served and Sh if Naylor and posse accompanied them to lend aid.

When the party arrived at the reserwhen the party arrived at the reservation they were met by Matrawh and about fifty followers, all heavily armed. They refused to be arrested, and the Sheriff's party were obliged to ride their horses to the utmost to save a conflict. The Sheriff says the Indians are in war paint and Sunday night held a war dance. He will ask Governor Morrill for troops, as he believes the Indians will continue warlike until confronted by superior numbers.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORER MISSING.

Mrs. E. T. Gardiner, of Nebraska, Has Not Returned From Bosto

Boston, July 30.—Mrs. E. T. Gardiner, of Arcadia, Neb., who came here as a delegate to the Christian Endeavor convention, has not yet returned to her home and husband and children, and the report of her death here is not supported by the records of the health department or anything else. Mrs. Gardiner is 35 years old. She has always been apparently healthy, and when her iner is 35 years old. She has always been apparently healthy, and when her husband received from her a letter on July 15 stating that she was about to die he was astounded.

To that letter came a supplement, signed "Mr. J. Brown, of South Boston," whom neither Mr. Gardiner nor any one else here knows, saying that the woman was dead, and in the interests of economy her body would be buried here. The death registeries bear no record of any such death and detectives employed by Mr. Gardiner have failed to find a trace of Mrs. Gardiner, dead to find a trace of Mrs. Gardiner, dead

It is assumed by some of those in-terested in the case that Mrs. Gardiner has been spirited away by thieves, who were attracted by the large sum of jewelry she carried, while some believe she died and her body was secured for dissection purposes. When Mrs. Gard-iner was in Boston she did not stay with the rest of the Nebraska delega-tion at the regular headquarters, but with some friends who cannot now be

Governor Culberson Will Not Allow Corbett and His Bullies in Texas.

It is believed that the outspoker attitude of Governor Culberson towards the proposed fight precludes all possi-bility of it taking place at any place in LONDONERS DYING FOR WATER. Women Offer Three Pence a Bucket and Then Are Unable to Buy.

London, July 30.—The meagre supply water in the eastern part of London is causing increased suffering to the in-habitants of that section. The streets are filled with women offering three-pence or more for a bucket of water, but who are unable to get it for the very good reason that there is none.

The death rate in East London has been doubled since the companies began turning off the flow of water except for about two hours out of the twenty-four.

Yuma, Ari., July 30.—On the White river, eight miles from Camp Apache, has been found a remarkable cave. The nas been found a remarkable cave. The explorers found between 300 and 400 human skeletons, indicating the remains of persons who had been smothered to death by smoke. The White Mountain Apaches say that within the cave there is a large lake of water. The visitors intend to explore it further.

ists to Hold Conventions.

Republicans, Democrats and Prohibitionists to Hold Conventions.

Saratoga, July 31.—Saratoga promises to be a lively place during the month of September. Political conventions and hundreds of politicians will be here during the middle of the month. The Republican convention has been called for the 17th, and it is altogether likely that the Democratic State Convention will meet either just before or immediately following this. September 3 is the date fixed by the Prohibitionists for their annual convention. They claim that there will be fully 1,000 delegates in attendance. The open mass meeting will be held Monday evening at which Sam Small, of Georgia, and Prof. A. A. Hopkins, of Tennessee, will be the speakers. Tuesday morning the convention will be called to order by State Chairman Dr. M. Downing, of Poughkeepsle. In the evening a second mass meeting is to be held, which will be addressed by John G. Wooley, of Chicago, and Volney B. Cushing, of Maine. Prof. Sam Dickle, national chairman, will preside. At the Wednesday morning they will go to Lake George. Following close upon adjournment of the Prohibitionists, the floral fete will take place. This will occur on the 5th of September, and judging from last year's attendance the crowd this year will be more than doubled.

The Judge Said to be Trying to Sooth the State Democracy. New York, July 31.—The fact that ex-Justice Maurice J. Power spent Sunday with Judge D. Cady Herrick, at Centre Moriches, L. I., and visited him again yesterday, is taken by some people to indicate that the proposition made by Senator Hill to certain State Democra-ty leaders a complet of weeks ago, to get senator Hill to certain State Democra-ty leaders a couple of weeks ago, to get into line and attend the State Conven-tion, is being carefully considered. Judge Herrick, who has been one of the most powerful anti-machine Demo-crats in the State for years, has now buried the hatchet with Senators Hill and Murphy, and is as anxious for Dem-ocratic harmony as any one else and peratic harmony as any one else, and his close personal and political relations with the leaders of the State Democ-racy make him the natural peacemaker between the warring factions.

Russia Will Not Wait for China to Pay the War Indemnity.

New York, July 31.—A Herald despatch from St. Petersburg says: "Strenuous efforts are being made by the Japanese Foreign Office to have the execution of the treaty of Shimonoseki and the evacuation of the Liao-Tong peninsula regarded as interdependent questions, evidently with the intention of retarding as far as possible the withdrawal of Japan's forces from the peninsula. The three intervening governments are, on the contrary, determined that no fusion of these two questions shall be allowed, it being quite clear that they are and always have been entirely distinct.

"Japan bound herself to the three powers to evacuate Liao-Tong. She did not enter into this undertaking toward China alone. The three powers are, therefore, entitled to call for the execution of this promise, quite independently of any subject in dispute between Japan and the Celestial government. They will take active, measures for hastening the definite settlement of the question by urging the immediate withdrawal of the army of occupation." War Indemnity.

vices has set the good folks wondering. At the last service every detail was carried on by the young women of the State Street M. E. church.

A short song service opened the programme, the Mrs. E. B. Calkins offered a fervent prayer. The address of the evening followed, with Mrs. J. H. Codwell in the pulpit. Two religious poems were read by Miss Howard and Miss Nellis. A trio by Miss Sewey, Mrs. De Long and Miss Ormsby was a musical treat. The Misses Fosgate and Stone officiated as ushers. The only customary feature of regular service which was omitted was the collection.

New York, July 31.—In a hall at No. 1777 Broadway a small band of young men, who say they are patriotic Cubans of. New York, have been for the past two months quietly perfecting themselves in military tactics and sword defence, preparatory(it is said, to accompanying General Rafael Quesada with a shipment of arms and ammunition to the Cuban revolutionary army. The neighbors call it drilling; the Cubans say blandly that they are exercising for their personal advantage.

At first the Cubans performed their manoeuvres with open windows, but after a time they put up brown paper before the windows and doors, so that of late but little of what has been going on within could be seen. When a reporter knocked at the paper-screened door last night, the sound of clicking steel within ceased and a wiremasked face apeared at a small hole that had been made in the paper at a window beside the door. An eye from behind another mask scrutinized the caller similarly, and then one of the men in proper person peered through the hole and presently opened the door. He was H. Sanchez.

Mr. Sanchez said that the room was occupied by the Cuban Fencing Club (not incorporated), and was used by more than a score of Cubans who desired to become accomplished in tactics and fencing. "We have been here about two months," he said. "Originally there were about fifty of us who wanted to prepare for an expedition to Cuba with General Quesada, whose intention it was to take a company from here to join the revolutionary army, or, more particularly, to convey arms and powder to them, for they do not especially need men.

Speaking of the situation in Cuba Mr. Sanchez said: "We expect something to happen on the island within a few weeks. The insurgents have dynamite and they intend to use it. They got twenty-six cases at Santlago de Cuba on July 4, we know, and we think General Maceo must have that or some of it in the eastern provinces by this time. Some time is required to organize the army, but we think there will be important actions in a short time, when the revolutionary army will be prepared to direct operations upon the cities. The dynamite will be used on buildings and fortifications."

Gonzalo de Quesada, the secretary of the Cuban revolutionary party in this city, made the following announcement yesterday:

"The expeditions started from two of the Bahama Islands in small boats about two weeks ago. A short distance from the starting point the whole party was picked up by sailing vessels in waiting, and on Thursday a landing was effected in the province of Santa Clara. The joint expedition consisted of about 353 men, all veterans of the last revolution, with 650 Winchester and Remington rifles, an equal number of machetes and revolvers, two small cannon, 500 pounds of dynamite and 700,000 rounds of ammunition.

When the Cuban sympathizers in this city heard the news of the landing of the expedition they were in high feather. Mr. de Quesada's office, at 66 Broadway, was thronged all day with Cubans, who heard the news and who wished to get it confirmed. It was conceded that this expedition was the most important one yet landed on the island.

The total force of the Cubans is now reported to be about 25,000 men in the infantry and cavalry. The Spanish reported to be about 25,000 men in First Spanish Reserve has been ordered to take the field.

Ex-Postmaster Van Cott proposed a set of resolutions of regret for the leath of the late treasurer, E. B. Harper. These were adopted. On motion of Charles M. Mr. Hackett said that his views were unchanged as to the policy of making Jovernor Morton the candidate of the Empire State for President in the coming Republican National Convention.

Last night there was a considerable rathering of prominent Republicans at the Fifth Avenue Hotel and a full attendance of the committee was expected. Among those present were Chairman Hackett, Col. George W. Dunn, of Bingamton; John F. Parkhurst, of Bath, Frank S. Witherbee; Lewis H. Vail, of Poughkeepsie; William J. John W. Vrooman, who was devotedly in favor of Governor Morton's nomination last fall, expressed himself as strongly in favor of making the Governor New York's candidate for President in 1896.

"I have just returned from a trip up hrough the Interior of the State," he isid, "and have met representative Republicans of at least twenty-five councies, and I tell you that there is a genuino sentiment among them in favor of Governor Morton. Some thought the desired reform might be obtained by making all the county shairman members ex-officio of the State committee. A committee of 150, some mought, would prove a growing sentiment favorable to an increase.
